

How Carlyle Creates Value

Deep industry expertise. Global scale and presence. Extensive network of Operating Executives. And a wealth of investment portfolio data; we call it The Carlyle Edge. These are the four pillars of Carlyle's value creation model. By leveraging these core capabilities and resources—Carlyle has established a 30-year overall track record of investing in companies, working to make them better and serving our investors' needs.

About ARINC and the Transaction

Founded in 1929, ARINC is a prominent global provider of advanced communications and systems engineering services primarily serving the commercial and business aviation, airports, and surface transportation industries. Excellent Outcome for Carlyle Investors

Early on, Carlyle saw an opportunity to reshape the Company into a more focused high-margin, high-growth enterprise. ARINC was already a market leader with #1 or #2 positions in most market segments and sustainable competitive advantages including proprietary technology, a high skilled, technical workforce, and long-term customer relationships. Working with an experienced management team, Carlyle helped ARINC generate consistent earnings growth by refining and focusing corporate strategy and through product and service innovation and international expansion.
