

How Carlyle Creates Value

Deep industry expertise. Global scale and presence. Extensive network of Operating Executives. And a wealth of investment portfolio data; we call it The Carlyle Edge. These are the four pillars of Carlyle's value creation model. By leveraging these core capabilities and resources—Carlyle has established a 30-year overall track record of investing in companies, working to make them better and serving our investors' needs.

Carlyle professionals worked with Xtep's management team to smoothly transform the company from a traditional, family-owned business into an international public company.

About Xtep and the Transaction

XTEP is a China-based professional sports brand providing stylish and functional products. It is principally engaged in the design, development, manufacturing, sales and marketing, and brand management of sportswear products, including footwear, apparel and accessories. Since Carlyle's investment, Xtep has been actively implementing its sports marketing strategy with a focus on running and football. The Company boasts an extensive distribution network of approximately 7,000 stores nationwide covering 31 provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities across China. Xtep is headquartered in Quanzhou, Fujian Province and has approximately 8,100 employees as of December 31, 2015.

Carlyle acquired a 9.6% stake in Xtep in 2007 and 2008 through two tranches of investment. In 2015, Carlyle fully exited the investment in the open market.

During Carlyle's holding period, Xtep's revenues and net profits grew by 288% and 180%, respectively. The number of retail outlets grew by 64% and the number of employees grew by more than 36% during the same period.
